

German Shepherd Dog Club of Victoria
107TH Championship Show
29th October 2022
KCC Park Skye

Judge: Mr David Middleton (UK)

I would like to thank the committee and officers of the GSD Club of Victoria for their Invitation to Judge 107th GSD Championship Show. Wonderful venue with fantastic facilities all within the designated local area for Canine activities. This being our first visit to your wonderful Country was a fantastic experience, everybody involved went to great lengths to ensure we enjoyed our time in Melbourne. I would also like to thank the Exhibitors for a great entry and acceptance of my decisions under really difficult conditions. The Weather prior to the show had been atrocious and on the day there was a real threat that the event could possibly be cancelled. However, the committee negotiated a compromise of a delayed start at midday and all exhibits were not to be moved at anything faster than a fast walk. Whilst making my job very difficult it was understandably acceptable after the great lengths the committee had gone to. I apologise to any exhibitor that felt I was rushing but obviously the task was to try and finish within daylight hours because the flood lights were also reported to be faulty. None of this dampened the spirit of the exhibitors who just carried on in spite of everything and the dreadful weather.

The entry was numerically high and also of a very good standard. Interesting to note the influence of European Males, primarily Ulkan v Maikhus, through his two sons Chilli Della Valcuvia and Uno my CC winner from Perth. Other influencers were Dingo di Casa Mary and Obama Du Montgison.
